

Thy Voices

STILL ARE DEAR TO ME.

BALLAD

Written and Composed by

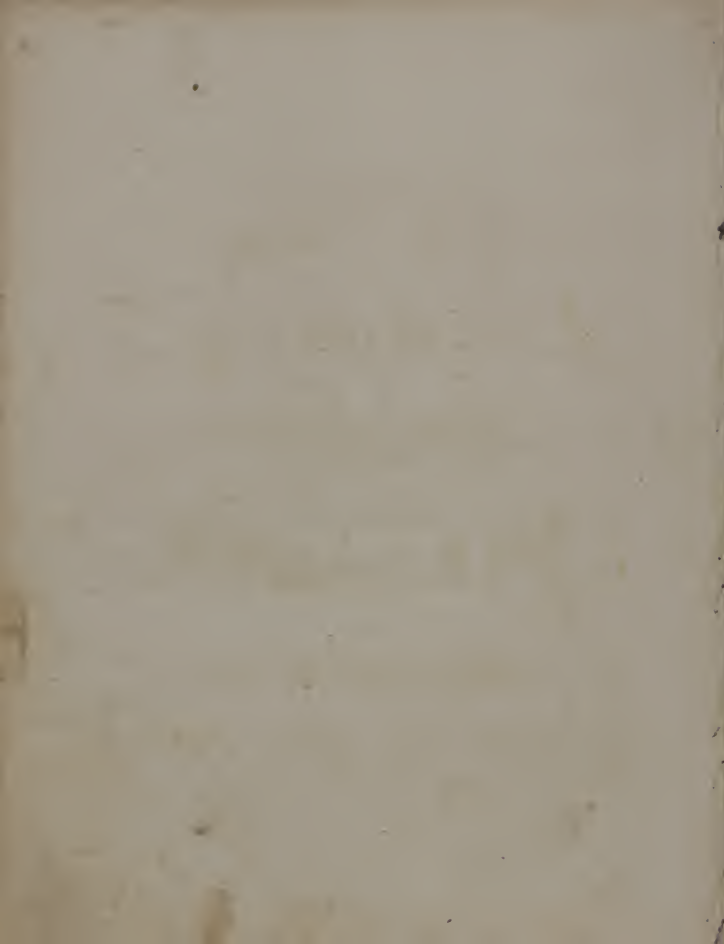

MRS. E. C. COMSTOCK.

And dedicated to her

COMPANIONS IN SONG.

Saint Louis

Published by W. M. HARLOW, 77 Fourth St.

THY VOICES STILL ARE DEAR TO ME.

WORDS AND MUSIC

BY MRS. E. C. COMSTOCK.
ST. LOUIS.

Moderato e legato.

PIANO.

1. 1
2. A-

fz.
rit.

fond - ly think of hap - py days, Blest mo - ments
las! I knew not how to prize, The gifts God

These ever to re-joice, With hearts so light we sang sweet lays While only for we be-moaned For-give if now re-grets should rise, Sing

would not for our souls would spurn, If clouds o'er In this heart, in grief's a-bode. Loved ones! with defend our tran-quil sky, O r sha-dow

 when in so-cial song, I've min-gled crossed our sun - - - ny way, With song and thought and feel - - - ing free, Re - mem - ber.

8
10

sch. scherz.

mirth we chased them by, Nor dreamed of though mine own be gone, Thy voi - - - ces

8
10

ad lib.
sor - - - row's dark - - - er day,
still are dear to me.

10

fz rit.

